Situated in one of the most privileged beachfront enclaves of Sotogrande, this elegant apartment invites you to experience the Mediterranean at its most refined and authentic. Just a few steps from the sea, surrounded by palm trees, marina life and the unmistakable atmosphere of the Sotogrande summer season, the property becomes the perfect retreat for those seeking privacy, comfort and effortless sophistication during their stay on the southern coast of Spain. (Miguel Properties)

Designed for temporary stays during the vibrant polo season, the apartment combines warm contemporary interiors with relaxed coastal living. Natural light floods every space throughout the day, while generous terraces open towards the sea breeze and the peaceful rhythm of Sotogrande Beach. Spacious living areas, elegant furnishings and carefully selected details create an atmosphere where guests immediately feel at home.

The location is truly exceptional for international visitors attending the prestigious Santa María Polo Club tournaments. Within minutes, guests can move effortlessly between the excitement of the polo fields, the marina's restaurants and beach clubs, world-class golf courses, and the calm serenity of the Mediterranean shoreline. Days begin with quiet walks along the beach, continue with afternoons of polo and social gatherings, and end with sunset dinners overlooking the sea and Sotogrande Marina.

This property has been conceived for those who appreciate understated luxury and the unique lifestyle that defines Sotogrande in summer — elegant yet relaxed, cosmopolitan yet deeply connected to Andalusian tradition. Whether enjoying a long lunch on the terrace, returning from a day at the polo grounds, or simply unwinding after the beach, every moment here feels naturally elevated.

Sotogrande itself has become one of Europe's most exclusive destinations, renowned for its international polo tournaments, marina lifestyle, golf courses and discreet sophistication. (Wikipedia) The atmosphere during the polo season is unlike anywhere else on the Mediterranean: international families, players and guests from around the world gather in an environment where sport, gastronomy, leisure and elegance blend seamlessly together.

More than simply a holiday apartment, this is a place to embrace the essence of a Sotogrande summer — sea, polo, sunsets and the timeless Mediterranean lifestyle. A refined coastal escape designed for unforgettable seasonal stays.
