This new stylishly decorated apartment is located in “The LinksII” in La Alcaidesa, an exclusive and consolidated urbanization that belongs to the coastal municipality of San Roque.

From the house you will be able to admire all the beauty of the sea, thanks to its incomparable views, with which you will experience the sensation of immensity and freedom on your terrace.

Located just 100 meters from the beach, “The Links” draws a horizon in which the orography of the Rock of Gibraltar, the Carboneras lighthouse or the fabulous views of the African continent stand out, which will remind you at every moment of the majesty of the place in the one you live

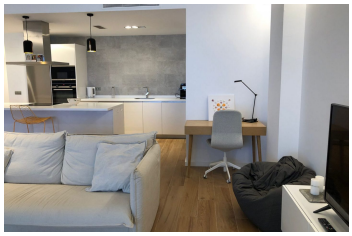

“The Links” is surrounded by an environment impregnated by nature and outdoor sports. Despite having spectacular views of the sea, the color green will be very present in your day to day, because next to the urbanization there is a golf course where you can have fun playing.

In addition, less than 10 minutes away by car you will enjoy golf in three of its most iconic courses: Valderrama, Real Club de Golf Sotogrande and San Roque Club.

“The Links” is perfectly connected to any point on the Mediterranean coast, thanks to its proximity to the A-7 and also to the interior of the peninsula via the A-381.
