Perched above emerald fairways and the endless blue of the Mediterranean, Rockwood is more than a villa — it is a feeling. A newly renovated architectural jewel where modern elegance meets the poetry of nature, designed for those who seek beauty, comfort and unforgettable moments together.

From the moment you pass through its private gates, Rockwood welcomes you with calm, space and light. Every corner has been created to invite connection: with family, with friends, and with the landscape that gently surrounds you.

Inside, soaring ceilings and walls of glass dissolve the boundary between indoors and outdoors. Sunlight dances across refined furnishings, while the sea quietly watches from the horizon. The villa sleeps up to 12 guests in six generous suites, each a private haven of rest, softness and style.

Days flow effortlessly between experiences. Mornings begin in the spa: a heated indoor pool, sauna, steam room and relaxation lounge where time slows and the body exhales. Afternoons unfold by the infinity pool, with laughter, sunbeds, shaded pergolas and long lunches under open skies. Evenings glow on the upper firepit terrace, as sunsets paint the sky in gold and rose, and conversations linger into the night.

Rockwood is made for togetherness and joy:

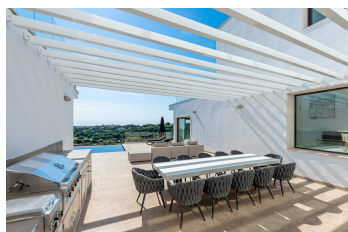

Long family dinners under the stars.

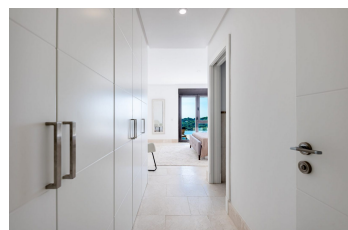

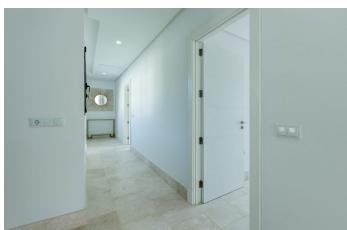

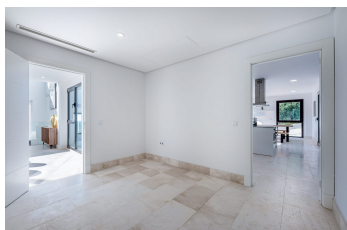

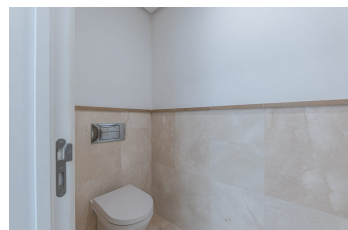

Children playing freely between pool and garden.

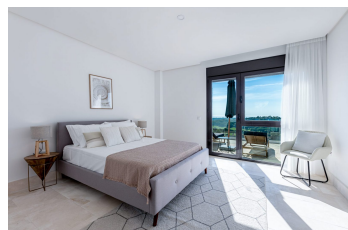

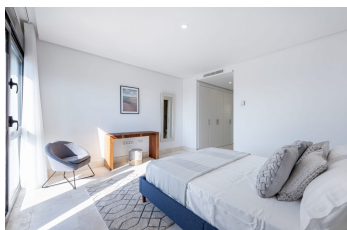

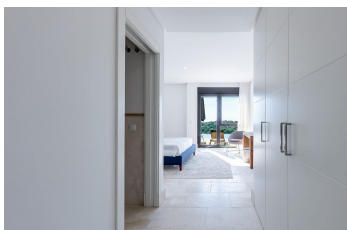

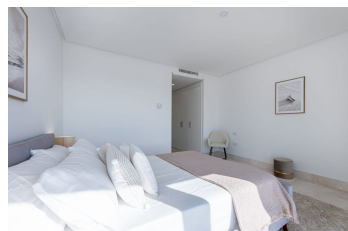

Quiet mornings in the gym or office with panoramic views.

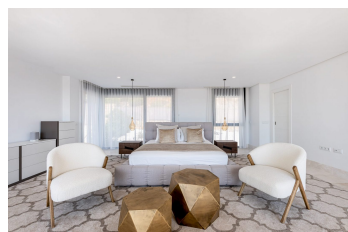

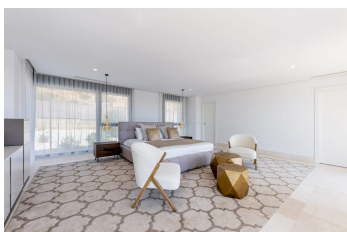

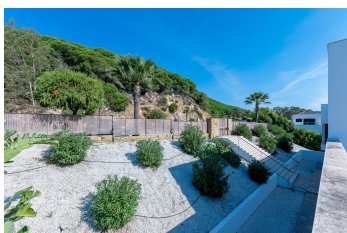

Playful nights in the games room, filled with music, laughter and nostalgia.

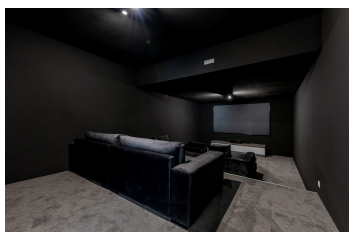

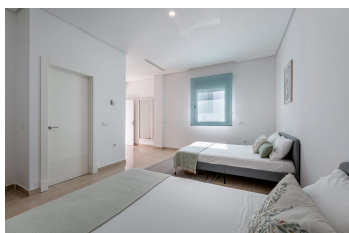

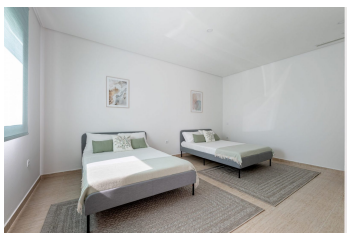

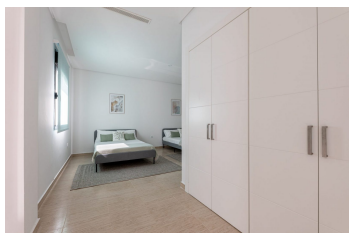

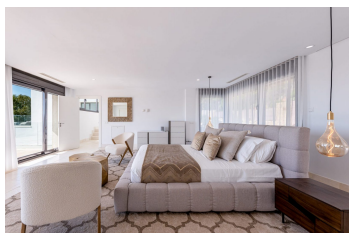

Whether you arrive as a family, a group of friends, or travelers in search of refined calm, Rockwood offers more than luxury. It offers warmth, harmony, and the rare privilege of feeling truly at home — in a place you may never want to leave.
