A project located in a unique and authentic place, where nature becomes an extension of your home and a family lifestyle awaits you.

Nestled in the heart of La Reserva Sotogrande, one of Europe's most exclusive residential communities, a masterpiece in perfect harmony with its natural Mediterranean surroundings.

The result is SENSE, a one-of-a-kind residence that blends seamlessly into the Andalusian landscape and offers its residents an incomparable sense of well-being, serenity, privacy, and security.

Villa SENSE is also a reflection on light. The project harnesses the movement of the sun to create unique moments throughout the day. A west-facing patio captures the golden afternoon light, which reflects on a sheet of water designed to multiply this feeling of warmth and beauty. Nothing is accidental: every detail responds to a precise analysis of the surroundings.

More than blending in, Villa SENSE adapts to the terrain. Like a body finding its place in the world, the architecture here doesn't invade, but rather adapts, settles, and becomes a natural extension of the landscape.

The layout of the home doesn't follow a rigid axis, but rather gently adapts to the terrain. The building rotates in search of the best views, the best solar orientation. This rotation generates a fluid, organic gesture, giving rise to the curve as the central element of the project.

The curve isn't decorative: it's a natural consequence of the process of adapting to the site. From there, the entire visual language is built around the circular: the pool, the atrium, the patios. Each element responds to a common logic, an architectural tone that remains consistent throughout. Seven bedrooms, one master suite, one guest suite, four suites, one staff suite, one service suite, eight bathrooms and one half bathroom, four parking spaces.

Amenities: Gym, Spa, Outdoor Pool, Indoor Pool, Elevator, Wine Cellar, Fireplaces, Office.

"The Garden of Light and Beauty

When the light of dawn touches the mountain, and each leaf is dressed in diamonds,
it awakens beauty on every brow,
a pure echo, a dream that sings.

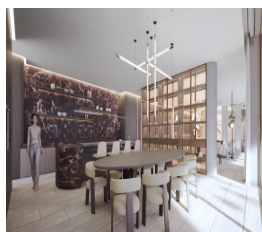

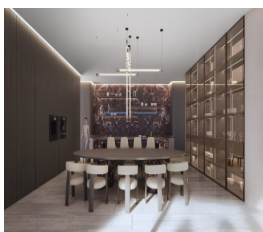

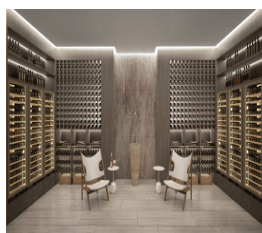

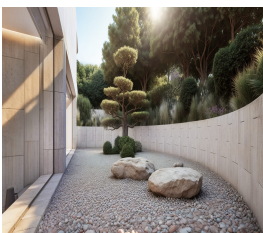

Like the flower that opens its brilliance to the sun,
the light reveals the soul in its brilliance,
and the soul, humble, offers a gift,
a song to the world, sweet and true.

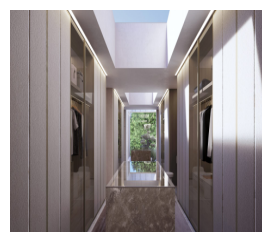

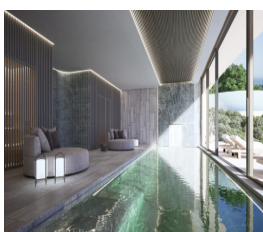

Beauty is not only the face that pleases,
nor the light that illuminates the serene day,
it is the truth that swims in silence,
the harmony of the world, its fullness.

It is the virtue that ignites in the soul,
the flight of the spirit that unveils itself,
the divine spark that the heart calls for,
and in every being, its essence that it reveals.

In the light, shadow and oblivion dissolve,
and beauty blossoms, free and joyful,
a moment of ecstasy, a feeling Vivid,
life itself displayed gloriously."
